Luibheanna agus Bláthanna Léana

Wild flowers and Herbs

A range of native Irish wildflower and herb photograph cards. The wildflower and herb greeting cards have an Irish message on the front with a translation at the back. The wildflower and herb cards have just the image in front and the name of the plant in Irish and English at the back. Both types of cards are printed on A6 card with a brown or white envelope. The selection shown here form part of a larger collection which are also available for print.

All cards are painted and designed at my home in Co. Galway and are printed in Ireland on recycled card and art papers. In keeping with my commitment to the environment, the cards are also packaged in biodegradable, renewable clear bags.

Individual cards are on sale for 2 euro each (wholesale). For orders of 10 or more of any one card design, the price is reduced to 1.80 euro per card.

I am happy to adjust the cards to your needs, so if you see an image that you like but would prefer it with a different message or border, or without, I can arrange this for you. I am currently working as an illustrator in Galway and if you have any other work for me, I would love to hear from you!
